Thank you

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for purchasing a Cottontail & Whiskers crochet pattern. Many hours of work are involved in its design, test, presentation, publication and release. Your support is why we can continue creating designs which are hoped to give hours of enjoyment. We value you greatly and apologise for problems caused by encryption and watermarking on this PDF.

We know our patterns are illegally distributed online and in private. We take our intellectual property very seriously, but it is impossible to monitor or stop all these acts of petty theft. If you have not purchased this pattern directly from Cottontail & Whiskers, you are in part destroying our passion, belief in people and ability to continue producing designs you obviously enjoy.

The next time you feel like offering a 'bounty', paying 'gold coins', clicking 'likes' or giving a social 'thank you' to the person who shared our hard work for what you might think is free, consider how little we ask and what it took to produce.

Be one of the good guys and support us. Buy your own copy with our thanks, appreciation and full support. Fate willing, we'll be here to assist.
