Thank you

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for purchasing a Cottontail & Whiskers crochet pattern. Many hours of work are involved in its design, test, presentation, publication and release. Your support is why we can continue creating designs which are hoped to give hours of enjoyment. We value you greatly and apologise for problems caused by encryption and watermarking on this PDF.

We know our patterns are illegally distributed online and in private. We take our intellectual property very seriously, but it is impossible to monitor or stop all these acts of petty theft. If you have not purchased this pattern directly from Cottontail & Whiskers, you are in part destroying our passion, belief in people and ability to continue producing designs you obviously enjoy.

The next time you feel like offering a 'bounty', paying 'gold coins', clicking 'likes' or giving a social 'thank you' to the person who shared our hard work for what you might think is free, consider how little we ask and what it took to produce.

Be one of the good guys and support us. Buy your own copy with our thanks, appreciation and full support. Fate willing, we'll be here to assist.

Begin to stuff and stuff as you go.

Rnd 13: 1sc, dec, (2sc, dec) x 5, 1sc (18 sts)

Rnd 14: (1sc, dec) x 6 (12 sts)

Rnd 15: dec x 6 (6 sts)

Fasten off, close the hole but don't weave in the end.

Iris

Rnd 1: inc in every stitch (12 sts)

Rnd 2: (1sc, inc) x 6 (18 sts)

Rnd 3: 18sc

Fasten off and leave a tail for stitching.

Pupil

With the black yarn,

Make 6sc into a magic circle

Rnd 1: inc in every stitch (12 sts)

Fasten off and leave a tail for stitching.

Stitch the pupil to the centre of the iris.

Use the white tail end of the sclera to go through the pupil, we'll use this later for the eye glint.

Pin the iris down over the bottom of the eyeball.

Stitch the iris around the edge and embroider the glint with the white tail.

Veins

(Make 6 of different lengths)

With the red yarn,

Ch35 x 2

Ch30 x 1

Ch25 x 2

Ch20 x 1

Leave a tail for stitching.

Pin around the top of the eye.

Use the long tail to stitch one end to the eyeball.

Then embroider small stitches coming out of the chain end for small veins.

Weave in the ends.

Once you have all 6 attached pull them all to one side.

Cut all the tail ends left and separate the ends of the yarn.

Take a length of the red yarn and tie in a tight knot around all 6 of the chains as close to the eyeball as you can.

Then thread one end of the yarn onto your needle and stitch the chains together as you work up the length.

Wrap the yarn around all the chains a few times as you go.

It does not need to be neat, we are not aiming for it to look perfect.

Let the shorter chains stick out as you go.

Once you reach near the end weave your needle back through the chains, cut and separate the end.

Thread the other end of your tied yarn at the eyeball onto your needle and weave that up the chains, cut and separate the end.

And you're finished!

Now he can be stitched onto Drip's hand.
